

THE BECK CHAPEL
Indiana University
Bloomington, Indiana

Nondenominational, the Chapel was opened in 1956 as a quiet retreat for Indiana University students, faculty, staff, and visitors. It is named for Dr. and Mrs. Frank O. Beck, alumni of the University, whose generosity made its erection possible.

Dear Carolyn,

Thank you for your Valentine. This cute little chapel is next to where we live. I go to school & study 12-14 hrs a day. What do you think of that? Wow! Love, Gladys
